Department of Visual And Performing Arts

The Chamber Orchestra of the Springs under the dynamic leadership of Thomas Wilson, is a semi-professional orchestra that presents innovative programming with artistic excellence and diverse arts and educational collaborations. This exciting ensemble consists of talented and dedicated musicians from diverse backgrounds, and provides a unique opportunity for audiences in the Pikes Peak region to hear and appreciate the wealth of music for small orchestra.

Students receive one credit, a scholarship commensurate with their orchestra participation, and work directly with Maestro Thomas Wilson. Rehearsals and performances are off-campus. All students must audition and be accepted into the orchestra before registering for the course.

In accordance with our non-discrimination policy, the Chamber Orchestra of the Springs holds blind auditions.

Scholarships range from $200 to $640 per semester and are open to all UCCS students
